"PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR STAY"

NOW COMES - MR. Naranjo, Plaintiff, who respectfully says:

1. He recently, about April 12-2007, received this Court's ORDER APRIL 03-2007 while in protective custody for B.O.P. violation(s) levied against him, to him by other(s) who meant to harm, injure him unconscionably.
2. He currently has no access to legal: equipment; books, etc., records; past pleadings; past court documents(s); past court related communications(s) - etc./etc.; research devices...
3. He request(s) "STAY" as he most likely will not be court available to pursue anything. Protective custody was not his choice but merely B.O.P. caution.
4. RELIEF REQUESTED - Granting Plaintiff 6 (six) week "STAY" to about May 31-2007. Thank You...
